Standard Sequence of Play

NEXT WAR: TAIWAN 2ND EDITION

1. WEATHER PHASE

1. Roll one die to determine this turn's weather (except Game Turn 1).
2. If the weather is "Storm," move all Naval units to the At-Sea Box (if friendly) or a friendly port of their Sea Zone. [4.1]

2. SUPPLY PHASE [13.1 – Optional]

1. Remove Out of Supply markers from units that are no longer out of supply.
2. Check for unsupplied units. Place an Out of Supply marker on any unit that is unsupplied.

3. INITIATIVE/AIR/NAVAL PHASE

1. Determine if either player has the Initiative for the game turn or whether it is a "Contested" Game Turn. Both players move their respective "VPs This Turn" markers to zero.
2. Detection - Allies roll to Detect SSM markers.
3. Each player rolls on the Standard Game Air Point Chart and records the Air Points received this turn, modifying for weather if necessary. [6.1 and Standard Game Air Points Chart]
4. Allocate Strike Points - Allied player allocates Air Points to Strike Points. [NWI/NWT2E 13.2]
5. Set Air Superiority Level based on Air Point differential. [6.4]
6. Conduct Strikes - Allied player conducts Strikes. [NWI/NWT2E 13.2.2]
7. During non-Storm turns, roll for Sea Control: [7.2.1/7.2.2]
   a. Check each eligible Inshore Box.
   b. Check each eligible At Sea Box.
8. Both sides roll for Mine Clearance. [7.5.2] (not on GT1)

If neither player holds the Initiative (i.e., it is a "Contested" turn), skip directly to the Basic Movement and Combat Phase.

4. INITIATIVE MOVEMENT AND COMBAT PHASE (Initiative Turn Only)

1. Movement Segment: The Initiative player moves any/all of his ground units up to the extent of their movement allowance. Air, airmobile, and sea movement and transport are allowed. [8.5]*
2. Combat Segment: The Initiative player declares and resolves all Combat (one combat at a time). [9.0]
   a. Declare Attacks (one at a time). [9.2.1]
   b. Compute Initial Odds. [9.2.2]
   c. Determine Column shifts. [9.5]
   d. Both sides allocate Attack Helicopters, Air Points, and Naval units to Combat Support Missions (attacker first). [9.2.4]
   e. Resolve all Air Defense Fire. [9.2.5]
   f. Determine DRMs. [9.6]
   g. Roll die and resolve combat. [9.7]
   h. Allocate Losses. [9.7.1]
   i. Retreat and advance units. [9.8/9.9]
3. Elite Reaction Movement Segment: Non-Initiative player may move all 6+ Efficiency units not in an EZOC their full MA. Only ground movement is allowed. LI in ZOC can move [8.2.4, 8.5 (limitations apply)]*
4. Exploitation Movement Segment: Initiative player may move ground units not in an EZOC their full MA. LI in ZOC can move. All movement types are allowed. [8.2.4, 8.5,]
5. Exploitation Combat Segment: The Initiative player performs Exploitation Combat. Any units (whether they moved or not) may perform Combat (at a two column shift left penalty on the CRT). [9.0]
6. Reaction Movement Segment: The non-Initiative player may move any/all of his units up to the extent of their movement allowance. Air, airmobile, and sea movement and transport are allowed. [8.5]*
7. Reaction Combat Segment: The non-Initiative player performs Combat. [9.0]

5. BASIC MOVEMENT AND COMBAT PHASE

1. Movement Segment: The Initiative/First Player moves any/all of his ground units up to the extent of their movement allowance. Air, airmobile, and sea movement and transport are allowed. [8.5]*
2. Combat Segment: The Initiative/First Player declares and resolves all combat. [9.0]
3. Reaction Movement Segment: The non-Initiative/Second Player moves any/all of his ground units up to the extent of their movement allowance. Air, airmobile, and sea movement and transport are allowed. [8.5]*
4. Reaction Combat Segment: The non-Initiative/Second Player declares and resolves all combat. [9.0]

6. REORGANIZATION PHASE

1. Rotate all helicopters and artillery to reflect "no missions used." [6.5.2]
2. Remove Air Points marker from Game Information Display.
3. Reset Airmobile Points. [8.5.4.1]
4. Remove Tunnel Markers. [NWK2E GSR 2.7]
5. Conduct Clearing Operations. [8.4.1]
6. Determine hex control changes.

7. REINFORCEMENT & REPLACEMENT PHASE

1. Both sides, non-Initiatve/First player first, place reinforcements in accordance with the Scenario's Reinforcement Schedule. [10.0]
2. Both players, Initiative/First player first, may use replacement points to replace or reconstitute units. Units in enemy ZOCs cannot receive replacements. [11.0]
3. Adjust Submarine Threat and ASW Levels. [7.4.3]

8. VICTORY DETERMINATION PHASE

1. Check for "per turn" VP. Add each players "VPs This Turn" to their "VPs" to reflect their total VP accumulated. Do NOT reset the "VPs This Turn" marker until the Initiative Phase of the next turn. [12.0]
2. Determine if either player is allowed to check for Automatic Victory. If this is the last game turn, compare each side's Victory Points to determine a winner. [12.2]

9. Game Record Phase

Players advance the Game Turn marker and begin the next turn.

 Bridge destruction/repair/construction allowed at end of segment.*

DRMs:

+3 if mission is Air Transport in home or friendly country.
+1 per Escort Air Point (max +2).
-1 Target hex is in or adjacent to a hex containing an enemy Armor or Mechanized unit (Amphibiously Assaulting units do not count).
-1 Attack Helicopters/Airmobile unit flew over enemy unit (not including target hex/Land Area).
-2 Target hex is within 2 hexes or same Land Area of enemy Airfield or Installation or Naval Unit.

Results:

(-#): # of Air Points or Attack Helo CS Points which do not support the combat
* : 1 Air or Airmobile Point is permanently lost and transported/paradrop unit takes a step loss or Attack Helo takes a step loss.
– : No effect.

IMPORTANT:

When the Air Superiority level is in your favor or contested, all missions that begin and end in a hex in your home (or allied) country and do not enter a hex that contains or is adjacent to an enemy ground unit are immune from Air Defense Fire.

Abort:

Combat Support/Strike Missions: No Effect.
Transport/Rebasing Missions: All aborted units are returned to their starting hex. Aborted Helos are rotated to reflect a mission flown. Airmobile Points are considered spent.

Key:

DRM:

+1 per Airbase (but not Airfield) which is enemy controlled.

Result Modifiers:

- The side receives additional Air Points per carrier that is in a friendly Inshore Box or All-Sea hex: +2 for US/+1 otherwise.
- Each US CVN provides an additional 1 Air Point per carrier that is in an At Sea Box or Contested Inshore Box.
- -1 per Air Point permanently lost.

Weather Modifiers:

Overcast
Limited All-Weather Capability = ½ Air Points (rounded up)
No All-Weather Capability = ¼ Air Points (rounded up)

Storm
Limited All-Weather Capability = ¼ Air Points (rounded up)
No All-Weather Capability = No Air Points

Standard Game Air Strikes [GSR 13.2.2]

Strike Points can be used to conduct Strikes against Beach Defenses:

1. Assign 1-6 Strike Points to the Strike.
2. The non-Allied player conducts ADF.
3. Allied player rolls a die; if the result is ≤ the number of Strike Points assigned, the target is damaged, and the marker is moved one box to the right.
4. Additionally, if the unmodified die roll is < half the number of Strike Points assigned, move the marker an additional 1 to the right.

Die Roll	Result
≤ Strike Points	Move marker 1 to the right
unmodified < ½ Strike Points	Move marker add'l 1 to the right
